1999 Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Championship Game Notes

- *Today's official attendance is 65,035, the largest crowd in Big 12 Championship Game history and the largest crowd to ever witness a football game in the Alamodome. The previous largest crowd in the Alamodome was 64,824 in the 1997 Big 12 Championship game between Nebraska and Texas A&M.
- *Four Big 12 Conference Championship Games have drawn a total of 253,766 fans, an average of 63,442 per game since the inaugural game in 1996. An average of 64,930 have attended the two games in San Antonio and an average of 61,954 have attended the two games in St. Louis.
- *Today's Nebraska victory marks the second Big 12 Conference title for Nebraska. The Cornhuskers were the 1997 champion, defeating Texas A&M 54-15 in the Alamodome.
- *Nebraska's 22-6 win today marks the first Cornhusker victory over Texas since 1974 and snaps a three-game losing streak to the Longhorns.
- *Nebraska quarterback Eric Crouch became the top rushing quarterback in the nation today with 72 yards on 23 carries, passing Chad Richardson of Rice who rushed for 831 yards on 203 attempts. Crouch ended the regular season with 889 yards rushing on 180 carries.
- Correll Buckhalter's 55-yard run in the third quarter is the second-longest run in Big 12 Championship Game history. The longest run is 61 yards by Priest Holmes of Texas in the 1996 game vs. Nebraska. Eric Crouch's 31-yard run for a touchdown in the first quarter is the third-longest rush in Big 12 Championship Game history.
- *The interception thrown by Eric Crouch in the second quarter ended a streak of seven games, 32 consecutive quarters and 123 straight attempts without an interception.
- Dion Booker's 37-yard interception return is a Big 12 Championship Game record. The previous record was 26 yards by Mike Brown of Nebraska in the 1997 game.
- *A 42-yard field goal in the first quarter was a career-long for Nebraska place kicker Josh Brown and the second-longest field goal in Big 12 Championship Game history. Prior to that kick, Brown was 0-for-3 in field goal attempts from 40 yards or more this season.
- Kwame Cavil had five receptions in the game, giving him 100 this season and making Cavil the first player in Big 12 history to have 100 pass receptions in a season.
- *Texas defensive back Ahmad Brooks' 20-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter is the second fumble return for a score in Big 12 Championship Game history. Terry Glenn of Texas A&M returned a fumble 35 yards for a TD in the 1997 game against Nebraska.
- Ahmad Brooks' fumble return for a touchdown enabled Texas to avoid being shut out for the first time in 19 years. The Longhorns have not been shut out since losing at Baylor 16-0 on Nov. 22, 1980.
- *Three interceptions by Major Applewhite is a Big 12 Championship Game record. The previous record was one held by six players.
- *Texas quarterback Major Applewhite had a string of 19 consecutive starts where he passed for more than 200 yards broken today. Applewhite finished with 164 yards passing.
- *The safety allowed by Texas on the errant shotgun snap in the second quarter to give Nebraska a 15-0 lead with 7:26 to play in the half is the first safety in the history of the Big 12 Championship Game.
- *FYI for Future Big 12 Championship Games – Game time weather in Kansas City today was 37 and light rain.

1999 Big 12 Championship Game Notes

No. 12 Texas vs. No. 3 Nebraska

December 4, 1999 • Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas • 2:30 p.m.

TEAM NOTES

- Ahmad Brooks' fumble recovery for a touchdown was not only the first of his career, but also marked Texas' first fumble recovery for a touchdown on a play from scrimmage since Robert Crenshaw returned one 33 yards against Texas Tech on November 4, 1995. Of note, UT's Beau Trahan returned a fumble for a touchdown on a kickoff at Iowa State (October 30, 1999) earlier this year.
- Texas has scored in a Big 12-record 226 straight games, dating back to a 16-0 loss at Baylor (1980). That streak marks the second-longest active streak in the nation (BYU: 311).

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Kwame Cavil's 90 yards receiving against the Huskers give him 1,188 receiving yards for the season, which sets the Big 12 single-season receiving yards record; previously held by Colorado's Rae Carruth (Colorado, 1996/1,116).
- Aaron Humphrey's three tackles for loss against Nebraska move him into fourth place on the UT career tackles for loss chart with 49.5; passing Tony Bracken's mark of 49.0 (1993-95).
- Kenny Hayter's eight carries for 19 yards were both career highs.
- Major Applewhite's string of consecutive games with 200 yards passing as a starter was halted at 21 games.
- Hodges Mitchell's streak of games with at least 100 yards rushing was snapped at four.

Nebraska Postgame Notes vs. Texas (Big 12 Championship), Dec. 4, 1999, San Antonio, Texas

The No. 3/3 Nebraska Cornhuskers won the school's second Big 12 crown, 43rd conference crown with a 22-6 win over No. 12/12 Texas in San Antonio. The win is NU's 11th this season (11th time overall, sixth in the 90s) and give Solich an 11-1 record this season and a 20-5 two-year record, which are both school bests for second-year Husker coaches. The win breaks a three-game losing streak by Nebraska to Texas and ensures NU of a BCS bowl berth to the Fiesta Bowl. The bowl bid marks NU's 31st consecutive bowl bid and 38th all-time. NU has won 23 of the last 29 games against ranked teams. Nebraska jumped out to a 15-0 halftime score and would have posted a shutout had Texas not scored on a Nebraska turnover.

QB Eric Crouch...Crouch scored the game's first TD on a 31-yard run on fourth and 1 with 2:56 remaining in the first quarter, marking the ninth straight game and 11th this year when he has scored at least one rushing TD. Crouch also scored on a four-yard run on NU's first drive of the second quarter, which increased NU's lead to 22-0 with 10:12 remaining. Crouch's run was set up by a 55-yard run by Correll Buckhalter. Crouch's streak of no interceptions grown in the last seven games, 32 quarters and 123 attempts (since Missouri game) ended as he had one in the second quarter. UT did not convert however, as Applewhite was intercepted on the very next play by Tony Ortiz. In the game, Crouch rushed 23 times for 72 yards and two TDs. He completed 6-14 passes with the one interception for 55 yards. Crouch became the nation's leading rushing quarterback this season and the first quarterback to lead the Huskers in rushing since Rex Fischer did so in 1955 as he passed Dan Alexander who had 852 entering the game but just 13 before being injured. Crouch finishes the season with 889 yards on 171 carries and 16 TDs (leads the nation's QBs) and averages 5.2 ypc and 74.1 ypg. He now has 1,348 in his career to rank fourth among Husker career rushing QBs passing Turner Gill's 1,317 from 1980-81-82-83. Crouch has 1,269 yards passing this season with another 16 TDs. He has 2,158 yards in total offense this season to rank fifth on the NU season chart (passing Gill's 2,047 in 1983 and two others). He now has 1,870 career passing yards to rank 11th and 3,218 career total offense yards to rank 10th on the NU career top 10 list.

The Husker I-backs...Dan Alexander started the game but injured his hand and was replaced by Correll Buckhalter. Alexander cut his right palm in the first quarter and went in for at least a dozen stitches. He said it split open when it hit the turf, do not know what, if anything, it was cut on. Alexander finished with four carries for 13 yards. Buckhalter came in and rushed 20 times for 136 yards, despite a sore toe suffered in the game, including a game-best 55-yard run to set up Eric Crouch's four-yard TD run on NU's first drive of the second half. Buckhalter had more than 100 yards for the fourth time this season and seventh in his career. Buckhalter's career best is 143 yards vs. Louisiana Tech in 1998.

SE Matt Davison...Davison had two catches for 19 yards and moved up to a tie for fourth on the NU career receptions chart to tie with Tim Smith (SE, 1977-79). He has 1,067 career receiving yards moving up from ninth to eighth in the game. Davison has caught at least one pass in 26 of the last 28 games.

All-American Rover Mike Brown...With an unofficial six tackles in the game, Mike Brown finishes as NU's leading tackler this season with 91 tackles. He became the first Husker defensive back and the third Husker all time to lead NU in tackles for three straight years. He finishes second on the NU all-time career tackle chart with 285 tackles. Starting his 51st consecutive game, All-American Right Cornerback Ralph Brown unofficially was second to Mike Brown with five tackles in the game. He had five pass breakups to extend his career school record for PBU's to 51. Brown intercepted Major Applewhite with 4:01 remaining in the third quarter. The pickoff was Ralph's third this season and 11th in his career which moves him up into a tie for fourth all time at Nebraska (career record is 14 by Dana Stephenson, 1967-68-69). With five pass breakups in the game, Brown has 16 on the season, which breaks his own school record of 14 last year. That makes him the first Husker to lead the team in pass breakups for four consecutive years. With 1:01 remaining in the game, Brown broke up an Applewhite pass which free safety Dion Booker intercepted and returned approximately 30 yards. NU ran out the clock for the win. Brown's 51 consecutive starts ties the NU career record and ranks tied for third all-time in NCAA Division I.

Sacking the Quarterback...For the ninth time this season, the Husker defense tacked on at least three sacks. NU had five in the first half, which was enough to break the school record of 49-393 in 1985. Sacks were recorded by DT Loran Kaiser (1-7, 1-8, for a career-best 2-15), RE Kyle Vanden Bosch (1-8), LB Julius Jackson (1-2), DT Jason Lohr/LB Carlos Polk (1-2), RE Aaron Wills (1-9), Rover Mike Brown (1-11). In the game, the Huskers had 7-47 in the game to give them a school-record 54-405 on the season. Loran Kaiser had five tackles including two sacks and three tackles for loss.

Kicking Game a Key Factor...Punter Dan Hadenfeldt forced touchbacks on all of his first kickoffs. He had nine punts for a 39.3 average and landed two inside the 20. On the season, Hadenfeldt totaled 65 for 2,924 yards for a 44.98 average. That average is a new school record, breaking Bill Lafleur's record of 44.94 set last season. This is the third consecutive punter that has broken the season average, as Lafleur broke Jesse Kosch's record set in 1996. He also breaks the career Husker punting average even though he only punted this season. The old record was held by Jesse Kosch (41.92 from 1994-95-96-97). Redshirt freshman place-kicker Josh Brown hit his first two field goals and was 2-3 in the game and is 14-20 on the season. His first was a career-best 42 yarder in the first quarter with 7:17 remaining. Previously, Brown was 0-3 on 40-yard field goal attempts. His second was a 21-yard field goal with 7:47 remaining in the second quarter which put the Huskers up 13-0. That field goal followed Tony Ortiz' first career interception. He missed on his third attempt (38 yards) which came with :05 remaining in the first half. That miss broke a streak of eight straight made (missed the first against Texas A&M, then made last three in the game). Brown has made two or more field goals in a game four times (vs. Texas, Texas A&M, Colorado and Texas). Joe Walker 3-27, including a 26-yard punt return, Bobby Newcombe had 3-36, including one for 25 yards. Walker also had two kickoff returns for 42 yards, including a 28-yard return. NU had 193 yards in returns with 6-74 on punts, 3-60 on kickoffs and 3-59 on interceptions.

Turnovers...Nebraska 3 (1 interception—did not convert, 2 fumbles—Texas TD, two-point conversion failed, did not convert second fumble), Texas 4 (3 interceptions—NU field goal, end of game on second, 1-fumble—NU did not convert). Crouch was intercepted in the second quarter by Greg Brown, but UT did not convert as NU linebacker Tony Ortiz intercepted Major Applewhite on the very next play at the UT 11 (returned six yards). The Huskers converted that turnover to three points on a Josh Brown 21-yard field goal with 7:47 remaining in the first half. With 13:25 remaining in the game, Dahrran Diedrick fumbled at the NU 23 yard line, Ahmad Brooks recovered and ran it in for the score. UT went for two, but the pass failed. RE Kyle Vanden Bosch recovered a fumbled pitch by Applewhite at the UT 18 with 7:42 remaining in the game. NU drove to the five, but Crouch fumbled it back on the snap from center. Texas did not convert. With 4:01 remaining in the third quarter, Ralph Brown intercepted Major Applewhite (returned 16 yards), but NU did not convert. On Texas's last drive, Ralph Brown broke up an Applewhite pass in the end zone, which free safety Dion Booker intercepted and returned it 37 yards with one minute remaining. NU ran out the clock and did not convert.

Rushing...Texas had minus 24 yards rushing at halftime (each of NU's 12 opponents this season have been held to 73 yards or less at halftime. Texas had nine yards in the game, the lowest vs. the Huskers this season (previous low was 25 yards by Southern Miss and Missouri). Only four Husker opponents this season as a team have rushed for 100 yards or more in a game (OSU 188, ISU 146, KU 116 and CU 165). Nebraska had 234 yards rushing in the game and 289 total (55 passing) compared to UT's 164 passing and 173 total. Applewhite was 15-42 with three interceptions and 164 yards.

Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Football Championship

SATURDAY 12/4/99 POST GAME QUOTES

Nebraska Coach Frank Solich

I'm real proud of our players and we as a coaching staff feel great about the type of team we have. They showed character all season. It certainly hasn't been easy. The Texas game the first time was a great game and Texas came out on top. I think our team turned the corner at the second half of the Kansas game after Texas. From that point in the season I think we have played the way we can play.

Our defense played great the whole game. They have had a great year. The offense did well and the special team was good. There was great kick-off and punt coverage and that played a part in the game

On his team's chances of playing for a national title

I think we have a great team. There are probably four or five teams in the nation that feel they have a great team and if you lined them up against each other it would be a great game. We will go with the system that is in place. We know how it works and why. Really, I'm pleased to finish the season like this and I'm happy with a Big 12 championship.

Does he feel vindicated after last year's four-loss season

I've said several times that I felt good about last year's team. They had some unfortunate things happen to them with injuries and such. They lost four close games but I didn't feel bad about the year. This year's team has been excellent. I felt O.K. about them all year. Maybe there are some people out there who don't feel that way, but I knew these guys would be alright.

On the 4th-and-1 play for a touchdown

It was a play where we fake to our fullback. We felt that we needed to do something different with the guys up the middle in this game, different than the first game. We brought the I-back up to block, so we had an extra blocker for Eric. The fake was a good fake and anytime you have people unsure of where the ball is, Eric with his speed has the chance to make a big play and he did.

Nebraska senior defensive back Mike Brown

On NU's defensive performance

I think we played a complete game today. We really got a lot of pressure on Major Applewhite. We pretty much dominated them from the first quarter through the fourth quarter. We had a mission today. They were a monkey on our back, and we finally got it off, and we got Coach Solich a Big 12 Championship.

On getting vindication after three straight losses to Texas

I knew I didn't want to leave here without beating Texas and I finally got them. I can die now.

On the trip home to Tempe, Ariz. for the Fiesta Bowl

I'm going to finish my high school and college careers on the same field. It's going to mean a lot to me. There are going to be a lot of people cheering and rooting for me back there. I could not ask for anything better except for playing for the national championship.

Nebraska sophomore quarterback Eric Crouch

On getting vindication after three straight losses to Texas

Definitely, we had a monkey on our back. They are a great football team. You have to credit them for everything they have done. The last three years we've played them, they've always given great effort. This was just another chance for us to go out and show how good our football team really is, and I think we did that today.

On whether NU should be playing for the national championship

I know the only team that beat us this year was Texas, and for us to come in and beat them in a game this big is probably one of the hardest things to do. If you think about it, there's not a team on our schedule we have beaten this year. I think that really says a lot about this football team. In my opinion we are very capable of playing in that game (national championship), but we have to go with what we got.

On the opening possession drive from deep in NU territory

I think that was probably the most important thing was to start the game with a great drive like that. It was a good momentum booster. We knew we had to make some big plays on offense to be successful today. That series is what started it and gave us momentum throughout the whole game.

Nebraska senior defensive back Ralph Brown

On Major Applewhite's pregame comments on NU's defense being simple to read

I think it was a great momentum booster for us. We went out and threw a lot of different looks at him. He didn't know who was coming at him.

On whether or not NU threw new things at UT's offense

We've had these blitzes in since fall practice. We just really wanted to pressure him (Applewhite) and see how he would react to the pressure. I think we shook them up early, and we kept coming. We shook him up and made him make some bad throws, and receivers dropped some balls also, but I think that's all in the pressure.
